General Information

Short summary

The company is looking for reliable textile manufacturers specialized in producing casual wear, including t-shirts, caps, beachwear (kaftans, lycra, swimwear), socks, towels, and cycling sportswear. They require moderate production volumes, typically between 100 and 300 units per model.

Full description

Spanish SME MAR SANAGUSTIN STUDIO is a multi-brand fashion company based in Las Palmas de Gran Canaria (Spain), established in 2017. The studio specializes in the design and commercialization of exclusive casual wear and lifestyle fashion items inspired by Mediterranean and Atlantic culture. With a growing presence both online and in selected physical points of sale, the company has developed several in-house brands targeting different customer profiles, focusing on contemporary designs with high aesthetic and material quality.

The Spanish SME is open to partnerships with both European and non-European manufacturers, provided they can ensure quality standards, timely deliveries, and competitive pricing aligned with the positioning of its brands. The SME is currently seeking reliable textile manufacturers with expertise in casual and sportswear production with long-term potential for collaboration.

Specifically, the SME is interested in manufacturers able to produce:

- T-shirts (various fabrics and finishes)
- Caps and accessories
- Beachwear: including kaftans, lycra garments, and swimwear
- Socks and towels
- Technical cycling sportswear (with performance fabrics)

The company values ethical production practices, attention to detail, and flexibility in production volumes (between 100 and 300 units per model, depending on the collection and product type).

Partners should be experienced in working with fashion brands and capable of providing support in the prototyping, sampling, and small-to-medium scale production phases.

Advantages and innovations

The company operates through both digital and physical sales channels, which supports its multi-brand strategy and provides direct access to customer feedback, improving product development and brand positioning.

Technical specification or expertise sought

The Spanish SME is looking for experienced textile manufacturers with the technical capacity to produce high-quality casual wear and sportswear in small to medium production runs (typically 100 to 300 units per model).
